DIARY OF THE WEEK

THE FACE OF CHARITY

Social luminaires flocked to Army & Navy CEO Jacqui Cohen's spectacular seaside residence for the 21st annual Face the World Foundation gala. Air-kissing abounded at the outdoor red-carpet cocktail reception, as the well-heeled crowd chatted and sipped wine. The decadent black-tie dinner – held overlooking the ocean in a tent that had been lavishly decorated with 5,000 rare orange South American roses and dramatic chandeliers – featured a five-course meal from Ki Modern Japanese + Bar. During dessert, guests bid on luxurious auction items, including trips to Paris, Belize and Cartagena. Gala-goers then kicked up their heels to the tunes of the Jim Byrnes Band and toasted the $960,000 raised for local charities. – NICOLE HARVIE IN VANCOUVER
